The Barrington Condos is 25 per cent sold after grand opening event

 MAY 5, 2015

After a successful grand opening on April 25th, The Barrington Condos has already sold 25 per cent of its 93 units, and it's easy to see why. Its central location at Bathurst and St. Clair is close to downtown, the St. Clair West subway station and Highway 401, allowing future residents to enjoy a convenient lifestyle with a short commute.

Plus, the architecture by E.I. Richmond Architects gives the building's exterior a striking look, while the interior design by Tanner Hill and Associates contributes high-end finishes, stylish flooring and gourmet kitchens, complete with stainless steel appliances and granite or quartz countertops.

Other impressive amenities include the executive concierge service and an outdoor terrace with space to barbecue.

Potential condo owners have the option of buying a suite from The London Flats group, with unit sizes starting from 555 square feet, or The Knightsbridge Collection, which includes unit sizes of up to 2,200 square feet. They can also choose to customize their suites by combining units for optimal space.

The Barrington isn't the developers' first building in the neighbourhood. Lash Group of Companies and The Goldman Group have already built three other successful condos in the area: 500, 530 and 743 St. Clair Avenue West. Developers Murray Goldman and Larry Blankenstein say their buildings have helped to transform the area over the years.

Standing 18 storeys tall, The Barrington's proximity to the downtown core mixed with its sleek, modern design make it the ideal urban dwelling. Prices start in the low $300,000s.
